

I read with interest an article in the NY Times this morning that the Sinclair Broadcasting Group is airing a glaringly partisan anti-Kerry program during prime-time this week. I have a hard time believing that this is not a violation of their FCC licenses, but, then, look who controls the FCC. I think it is unconscionable that you would violate the principles of "public ownership" of the airways so egregiously. How do you sleep at night?